

Title: Women's Personal Diaries in the Polish 'Women's Archive' Database

Author: Ewa Serafin-Prusator, Institute of Slavic Studies PAS

Abstract:

Our research project titled Archiwum kobiet: piszące (Women's Archives's: Writings) is being carried out at the Institute of Literary Research of the Polish Academy of Sciences under the leadership of Dr. Monika Rudaś-Grodzka. The project aims to create a database and launch a digital archive of unpublished life writing (e. g. diaries, memories, autobiographies, letters, etc.) written by women who lived in the territories of Poland since the sixteenth century to the present. My paper focuses on the main ideas of the project and presents some of the most interesting findings.
